

Hug Breath

Have your student come to peace pose. Ask them to wrap their arms around their chest. Guide your student to take a deep breath in and give themselves a tight squeeze and then to release the squeeze and let the breath go. Repeat this breath as many times as needed. For younger children you can use a favorite stuffed animal for them to hug and breathe with.